Hi Marcus, how are you?

I wanted to follow up on the state of our agreement and the state of aml bitcoin.

For starters, there is one more payment missing that I have not followed up on that I would like to inquire about.

Also, I still get random crypto inquiries and a few have come back with "where can I look at volumes of third party aml trades" and then I don't know what to say.

Do you need some help with getting this done? I know we set me up to be a figure head, but now that my cash flow issues are solved with a real job at Zynga, I am happy to discuss actually helping you on a recurring coin basis, assuming there is a path to liquidity that we can create.

Please let me know about the final payment, and also, if I can help on the other side of that getting aml bitcoin to goodness.
